Celebrating
30 years!

Every Sunday at The Globe Hotel

30 years of folk in Topsham

2007 sees Topsham Folk Club celebrating its 30th anniversary! The club started in 1977 at the King's Head where it remained for 11 years. The club then moved through a couple of other venues before settling at the Globe Hotel (where we enjoy great hospitality). We are aiming to mark this occasion with a Bank Holiday weekend of lunchtime sessions, folk dancing and evening concerts in the Globe Malthouse. We hope you will be able to come along and help us celebrate. We are especially interested in attracting former regulars who may have moved away and would enjoy a weekend of great entertainment and nostalgia.

Saturday 5 May 12.30pm - 3pm lunchtime session - free
Saturday 5 May 8pm - concert Last Night's Fun - £8

Last Night's Fun have an audience pinned to the wall with breathtaking virtuosity and creative arrangements, and falling off their chairs with a loveable line in patter that is their trademark.

Sunday 6 May 12.30pm - 3pm lunchtime session - free
Sunday 6 May 8pm - 30th anniversary concert - free

The Sunday evening concert will feature local performers who have featured at the club over the years. While it is a free event we will be issuing tickets.

Bob Fox £7

... as soon as I heard Bob Fox sing I realised he must have one of the best voices in England, I have always regarded him as an artist of great ability and integrity. - Ralph McTell

Singers nights

All other Sunday nights are singers nights starting at 8.30pm and held in the Globe restaurant area. Admission is free.

If you would like to sing or play on one of these nights, come along and make yourself known to the evening's compère. People normally perform two songs or tunes within a 10 minute slot. Don't worry, it's not compulsory to perform! You might like to just come along and listen to the wide range of songs and tunes performed by local people.
